III. Computation of Damages

Itemization Of Damages

The Plaintiff seeks damages that are unliquidated for the following categories of harm as "actual damage" in this matter. These actual damages are not liquidated and do not lend themselves to a statement of calculation but may be subject to an award of damages. Williams v. Trader Pub. Co., 218 F.3d 481, 486-487 (5th Cir. 2000); See Burrell v. Crown Central Petroleum, Inc., 177 F.R.D. 376, 386 (E.D.Tex.1997). Such damages will be determined by the jury in this matter.

Categories and types of Actual Damages

- i. Plaintiff has suffered emotional and mental anguish, frustration and annoyance from being deterred from applying for credit.
- ii. Plaintiff has suffered emotional and mental anguish, frustration, humiliation, embarrassment and annoyance from being denied credit.
- iii. Plaintiff has suffered emotional and mental anguish, humiliation, anger and frustration, annoyance, and embarrassment as a result of the publication of the false information.
- iv. Plaintiff has suffered general economic damages in the form of lost credit capacity and decreased credit scores.
- v. Plaintiff has suffered general damages in the form of damage to reputation.
- vi. Plaintiff has been strapped with a false history, causing mental anguish, emotional distress, frustration, humiliation, and annoyance.
- vii. Plaintiff has suffered lost opportunities to obtain credit in the form of an unspecified number of credit offers that the Plaintiff did not receive because of the false and derogatory information contained in their credit reports.
- viii. The damage to Plaintiff's credit score may also have impacted the interest rates he has on current loans, credit he has requested during this ordeal, if applicable or caused decreased credit limits on existing accounts.
- ix. Plaintiff's economic damage also includes the considerable time, effort and expense he has been forced to expend attempting to force Defendants to comply with its statutory obligations including telephone calls, writing letters, sending faxes.
- x. Plaintiff has endured substantial and ongoing emotional and mental anguish and loss of self-esteem because of this long ordeal to recapture his good name and credit, as well as the fact that Defendants continue to persist in painting Plaintiff in a false light both personally and financially.
- xi. Plaintiff has also suffered embarrassment from having to explain himself to potential creditors as well. Plaintiff suffers anxiety when considering seeking additional credit because they believe, justifiably, that he will be forced to once again subject himself to the humiliation of having to explain the false and defamatory information previously that has been and continues to be circulated about them.

c. Specific examples of credit denials/ adverse actions

The Plaintiff has experienced specific and known damage to his credit that has been manifested in the Plaintiff's credit reports including decreased credit scores as a result of the inaccurate information contained in his credit files.

It is the Plaintiff's understanding, as summarized through his counsel, that each of the credit reports utilized contained the inaccurate derogatory accounts and inaccurate information at issue in this case.

d. Punitive Damages.

The Plaintiff seeks punitive damages which are unliquidated in this matter based upon the factors set forth in Mathias v. Accor Economy Lodging, Inc., 347 F.3d 672 (7th Cir. 2004). Punitive damages will be proven through the Plaintiff's testimony, that of his expert witness and through the testimony of the employees of the Defendant against who such damages are sought.
